INSTRUCTIONS TO PARTIES FOR COMPLETION OF EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION INVENTORY AFFIDAVIT (“EDIA”)

1. PLEASE READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY. Your EDIA is an important document and must be fully and accurately prepared. Submission of this EDIA is required in cases involving claims for Equitable Distribution (i.e., marital property/debt division) by the Tenth Judicial District Family Court Rules for Domestic Court (“Domestic Rules”), a copy of which is available in the Family Court Office on the 11th floor of the Wake County Courthouse. If you are not represented by counsel, you should obtain a copy of the Domestic Rules so that you can comply with them.
2. PLEASE READ THE EDIA FORM THOROUGHLY AND CAREFULLY. If you have any questions or are unsure how to list certain information, ask your attorney or review G.S. 50-20. Please print carefully or type all information.
3. The EDIA must substantially conform to this form. Your signature on Page 1 must be notarized.
4. The EDIA contains numerous Schedules on which various categories of property and debt are listed. The purpose of the EDIA is to provide a complete and accurate inventory (i.e., list) of all property and all debt (whether marital or separate) that existed on the date you and your spouse separated, and to provide information about what has happened to property or debt since the date of separation. Each asset or debt should be listed separately. If you need more room to list additional property or debt on a particular schedule, please add additional sheets of paper as necessary to give complete information about your property and debt.
5. You may omit sections or categories of assets that do not apply to your case.
6. Please indicate if you are the plaintiff (i.e., the person who first filed a claim for Equitable Distribution) or the defendant (i.e., the person against whom the initial claim was filed) by checking the applicable box. Also, “DOM” means the date on which you and your spouse were married and “DOS” means the date on which you and your spouse physically moved apart from one another. Please include these two dates where indicated.
7. IMPORTANT!! DISCLOSURES (i.e., supporting documents) are required for each asset and/or debt listed on your EDIA. The particular documents that you are required to produce along with your completed EDIA are listed at the top of each Schedule of the EDIA. Any time that you list an asset or debt on a particular schedule, make sure to check the instructions at the top of that Schedule – these instructions will tell you what Disclosures are required to be produced as supporting documents for what you have listed.
8. Schedule XIII of this affidavit should be completed only if you are seeking an unequal distribution of marital property. If you are seeking an equal distribution, omit Schedule XIII from your affidavit. An equal distribution is presumed equitable. If you are seeking an unequal distribution of marital property, you must provide a detailed explanation as to each specific factor that you believe the court should consider in awarding you an unequal division of the marital property. See pages 26 and 27.
9. In addition to listing property and debt, there is a place at the end of each Schedule for you to list your CONTENTIONS. This section allows you to make notes about facts or legal issues related to the classification, value, or distribution of a particular asset or debt that you would like for the other side (i.e., your spouse and his/her attorney) and the Court to consider. For example, if you contend that a certain asset was purchased in part with your separate property, you would state the facts related to this in the Contentions section on that Schedule.
10. If you are not represented by an attorney, North Carolina law and the Domestic Rules nevertheless apply to you and it is your responsibility to fully comply with these instructions. Only the Certificate of Service for the EDIA is filed with the Clerk of Superior Court. The rest of the EDIA is served on the other side pursuant to the Domestic Rules, but is not filed with the Clerk. All filings with the Clerk should be done at the Wake County Courthouse, 316 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, North Carolina 27601. It is important to consult the Domestic Rules regarding Equitable Distribution claims in order to determine all of the deadlines and other procedural rules that apply to your case.
11. The second party to file his/her EDIA should list assets and debts in the same order and using the same asset numbers as the original filing party whenever possible.

12. Deliberate omissions or misstatements of fact in your EDIA may subject you to sanctions by the Court.
13. The following are the statutory definitions for “Marital”, “Separate”, and “Divisible” Assets:
- a. “Marital property” means all real and personal property acquired by either spouse or both spouses during the course of the marriage and before the date of the separation of the parties, and presently owned, except property determined to be separate property or divisible property. Marital property also includes all vested and nonvested pension, retirement, and other deferred compensation rights, and vested and nonvested military pensions eligible under the Federal Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act. It is presumed that all property acquired after the date of marriage and before the date of separation is marital property except property which is separate property.
  - b. “Separate property” means all real and personal property acquired by a spouse before marriage or acquired by a spouse by bequest, devise, descent, or gift during the course of the marriage. However, property acquired by gift from the other spouse during the course of the marriage shall be considered separate property only if such an intention is stated in the conveyance. Property acquired in exchange for separate property shall remain separate property regardless of whether the title is in the name of the husband or wife or both and shall not be considered to be marital property unless a contrary intention is expressly stated in the conveyance. The increase in value of separate property and the income derived from separate property shall be considered separate property. All professional licenses and business licenses which would terminate or transfer shall be considered separate property.
  - c. “Divisible property” means all real and personal property as set forth below:
    - i. All appreciation and diminution in value of marital property and divisible property of the parties occurring after the date of separation and prior to the date of distribution, except that appreciation or diminution in value which is the result of postseparation actions or activities of a spouse shall not be treated as divisible property.
    - ii. All property, property rights, or any portion thereof received after the date of separation but before the date of distribution that was acquired as a result of the efforts of either spouse during the marriage and before the date of separation, including, but not limited to, commissions, bonuses, and contractual rights.
    - iii. Passive income from marital property received after the date of separation, including, but not limited to, interest and dividends.
    - iv. Increases in marital debt and financing charges and interest related to marital debt.
14. The following is a list of abbreviations used in this affidavit:
- a. FMV: Fair Market Value
  - b. DOS: Date of Separation
  - c. DOM: Date of Marriage
  - d. H: Husband
  - e. W: Wife
  - f. Jt: Joint (as in joint names listed on a title)

SCHEDULE IX:
CONTENTIONS FOR AN UNEQUAL DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY

List below factors for the Court to consider in determining whether an equal division of marital property would not be equitable in your case. Only complete this schedule if you are seeking an unequal division of marital property. Please provide a detailed explanation as to each specific factor listed in the order in which they are listed.

FACTORS	DETAILED EXPLANATION
1. The income, property, and liabilities of each party at the time the division of property is to become effective.
2. Any obligation for support arising out of a prior marriage.
3. The duration of the marriage and the age and physical and mental health of both parties.
4. The need of a parent with custody of a child or children of the marriage to occupy or own the marital residence and to use or own its household effects.
5. The expectation of pension, retirement, or other deferred compensation rights that are not marital property.
6. Any equitable claim to, interest in, or direct or indirect contribution made to the acquisition of such marital property by the party not having title, including joint efforts or expenditures and contributions and services, or lack thereof, as a spouse, parent, wage earner, or homemaker.
7. Any direct or indirect contribution made by one spouse to help educate or develop the career of the other spouse.
8. Any direct contribution to an increase in the value of separate property which occurs during the course of the marriage.
9. The liquid or nonliquid character of all marital property and divisible property.
10. The difficulty of evaluating any component asset or any interest in a business, corporation or profession, and the economic desirability of retaining such asset or interest, intact and free from any claim or interference by the other party.
11. The tax consequences to each party.
11.a. Acts of either party to maintain, preserve, develop, or expand; or to waste, neglect, devalue or convert the marital property or divisible property, or both, during the period after separation of the parties and before the time of distribution.
12. Any other factor which the court finds to be just and proper.
